WITHOUT A WARNING ATTACK AN ADMIRAL.

Soldiers Shoot Into Crowd at Odessa Commander of the American Asiatic
With Awful Results. Squadron Assaulted.

TWENTY ARE KILLED WOUNDED A WOMAN

Sixty Other of the Populace Were Wounded---Czar Is Hesitating as to What Course He Had Better Pursue.

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Standard from Odessa, timed 7 p. m. Oct. 29, says:

"A collision between the military and a crowd of students and strikers occurred an hour ago in Tyraspoleskaya street. The soldiers without warning fired pointblank into the people, killing twenty and wounding sixty. The students are holding a stormy conclave at the university.

"It is reported from Kioff that three regiments have mutinied in the south-western provinces and there are alarming reports here of the doubtful fidelity of three battalions of infantry. I have had an interview with General Kaulbars, commander in chief of the Odessa military district, who said the situation was a grave one, but he did not yet consider himself warranted in asking the authorities again to impose martial law. His great fear appears to be that a general attack would be made on the Jews, in which case, he said, he would use all the forces at his disposal for their protection.

"Subsequently I saw the civil governor, who seemed to be more nervous about the situation, but who declined to discuss it."

THOUGHT TOTTERING.

Czar Nicholas Seemingly Hesitating What He Had Best Do.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—While Sunday passed quietly, without bloodshed in the capital, and while the city is outwardly calm, today's developments all indicate that a crisis is imminent. Although the streets are filled with troops and reinforcements are now pouring in from Finland, the government seems utterly powerless to cope with the situation and many calm observers seem seriously to believe that the present regime is tottering to its fall.

Difference have developed between Count Witte and General Trepoff, and while the precious moments pass the emperor, surrounded by the imperial family, remains shut up. Peterhoff seemingly hesitating as to what course to pursue.

Grave doubts are expressed as to whether even the imperial guard can now be relied upon. Discontent is rife. Early Monday morning the Fourteenth equipment of sailors of the guard, who have been shut up like prisoners in barracks on the Moskva canal demolished the windows and furniture in the place.

PROGRAMME ACCEPTED.

It Means Witte Will Be Premier of Russian Empire.

London, Oct. 30.—The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs: "I am informed that the emperor has just accepted the Liberal programme, with Count Witte premier, and given executive power, to allow assembly, allowing representative from all section of the population to be elected to it and abolishment of martial law throughout the empire. I am informed further that the emperor will issue a manifesto to the people."

The correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at St. Petersburg sends the following: "The court is in revolt against the emperor, who is vacillating between the councils of his ministers to grant a constitution with Count Witte as premier, and the advice of the reactionaries to proclaim a dictatorship under General Count Alexis Ignatieff, a member of the council of the empire."

One Slain.

Kioff, Oct. 30.—Several Cossacks who refused to fire on the crowd during the recent disturbances have been arrested. A sergeant of police was killed and another policeman was wounded during the search of a room in a hotel. Many revolvers and cartridges were found in the room. Great crowds are on the streets.

Another national bank, with $300,000 capital stock, is to be organized at Dallas.

T. S. McClelland, one of the best known Panhandle cattlemen, died at Clarendon.

St. Joseph, Mo., capitalists will put in an oyster canning plant at Matagorda, Tex.

While hunting ducks near Gage, Okla., Ernest Schultz, a boy, was killed accidentally.

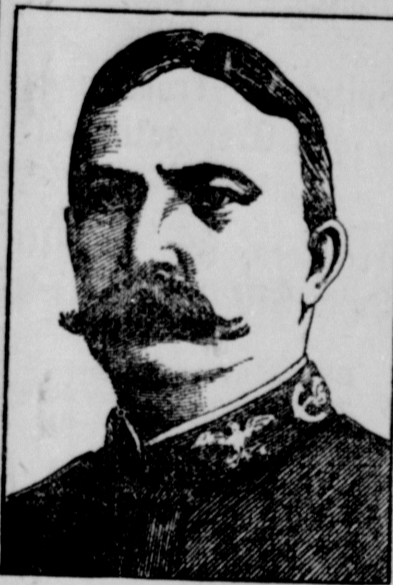

Dr. G. W. Hudspeth, a leading Little Rock physician, died at a Memphis hospital after a long illness.

The one man who voted against issuance of $25,000 bonds for waterworks at Davis, I. T., expressed the hope that the standpipe would be filled with "boozie."

As R. E. Gressett left his home in King and Queen county, Virginia, U. D. Coker shot him to death. Coker went to his own home, killed his wife, two girls and suicided.

Train Was Pheasant Hunting Near Nanking, Accidental Was Shooting and Marines Came to His Assistance.

London Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Evening Standard from Shanghai says that Admiral Train, commander-in-chief of the American Asiatic squadron, and his son Lieutenant Train, have been victims of a savage attack by the Chinese outside of Nanking. The American officers were pheasant shooting when the admiral accidentally shot a Chinese woman, slightly injuring her. Hundreds of villagers thereupon surrounded the officers, took away their guns, knocked the admiral down in the mud and held Lieutenant Train as a hostage. The North American marines landed and were attacked by a mob of Chinamen, who tried to pitchfork the officers. The marines were obliged to fire twice. The Chinese officials refused to restore the officers their guns and supported the villagers. Nanking has been active in the movement for boycotting American goods and is the central activity on part of Japanese students.

TRAIN DERAILED.

Rain Added to the Difficulty of Rescuing the Passengers.

Kansas City, Oct. 30.—An Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe train was derailed near Sheffield, five miles west, at 10:50 o'clock Monday morning. At noon the number of dead was placed at eight. Rain retarded the work of rescue. About twenty persons were injured.

At 2 o'clock it was stated thirteen were killed and twenty-five hurt. The wreck occurred while the train was running fifty miles per hour. The train was made up of vestibule cars, and while the vestibules prevented telescoping in a measure, the speed of the train was so great that it caused several of the cars to pile upon top of each other, tearing out connections. Wreckage was piled high, and under it scores of passengers and members of the crew were buried.

PARISH HOUSE BURNS.

Two Seriously and One Fatally and Several Other Persons Injured.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 30.—Fire broke out in the parish house connected with the Nazareth orphanage, three miles from here. Three persons jumped for their lives. One died and the others were seriously hurt. Several other parties were injured.

SLEIGHING SEASON.

First of the Winter Is Reported at Superior, Wis.

St. Joseph, Mo., reported Monday first snow of season. Des Moines reports both snow and sleet.

Nebraska had her first snow Monday.

Off Cape Hatteras.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 30.—According to a wireless message received at the Norfolk navy yard at 10 o'clock Monday morning the West Virginia was fifty miles south of Cape Hatteras. A northwest wind and heavy sea prevailed.

WEEK OF FUN AND FROLIC.

A week of frolic. Here is the time and place to have it. The carnival that made Houston famous is the No-Tsu-Oh, and this year the biggest festival ever known in Texas has been planned.

The No-Tsu-Oh carnival has no object but to spread mirth. It does not mingle this with any exhibition that savors of dullness. There is fun of every kind, fun for everybody, wholesome, unshackled, untainted, sparkling fun. The carnival of 1905 begins November 13 and continues through the night of November 18.

Horse races every day of the No-Tsu-Oh carnival is a new and big feature this year. Some of the best racers of the country will be on the Houston track. There will be running, trotting and pacing races. A feast is in store for the lovers of this, the most inspiring of all the sports. Every facility has been provided to accommodate the crowd at the race track, and some novelties will be put in to make the Houston races lead all others in point of interest.

OPIE READ AT OPERA HOUSE NOV. 8

One of the most intensely interesting and enjoyable entertainments of the season will be that of Opie Read, the eminent writer and story teller, at Grand opera house Nov. 8th. Perhaps no writer of today has told the stories of the South with the charm of Opie Read. His translation of the poetry of the South rings true. He has written twenty books, nearly every one of which is vibrant with the magnetism and fragrance of Dixie. He is the one arch-dreamer and true poet of America who does not essay verse. He depicts with wonderful truthfulness the South-land.

Mr. Read is a personage of fame upon two continents—as they read his books, laugh at his humor and applaud his plays as much in Merry England as we do in America. He says that this is his last lecture tour for at least ten years, as he has signed a contract with a great theatrical company to write one play a year for that length of time. They are to give him $10,000 a year, and he thinks that he can manage to live on that—that is, he and Mrs. Read and the little Reads.

Go and see him while you have this opportunity. If you are good material you may some day discover yourself in a metropolitan play, provided he sees you; but you can stand that for the sake of seeing and hearing him.

The remains of Robert Eimar, the Galveston young man whose death was mentioned in the Eagle Sunday morning, were removed from the undertaking establishment of James & Nunn Sunday afternoon and interred at the city cemetery, members of the Knights of Pythias attending. The father and two brothers of the deceased, William Eimar and Ed and Charles Eimar, were here for the funeral, returning to Galveston Sunday afternoon.

At Chenoa, Ill. William Laduce shot and killed Mayor Nichols, his brother-in-law. Laduce accused Nichols of separating himself and wife.

Executive committee of Texas Press association, in session at Dallas, set June 6, 7 and 8 as dates for next year's association at Corpus Christi.

BUFFALO BAYOU BLAZE.

ON the Water Becomes Ignited and G. te a Conflagration Results. Houston, Oct. 30.—Waste oil on Buffalo at Glenwood cemetery caught fire Sunday and developed into a tremendous conflagration. The blaze was presumably started by some one setting the oil afire. A stiff breeze was blowing at that time which spread the flames northward until they covered a space of about fifty yards. The flames would shoot up a hundred feet in the air, and consumed the leaves from the trees along the banks of the bayou and burned some small ones down. The great columns of smoke soon attracted many people to the place and the crowds continued to swell until thousands of people were out to watch the fire.

Lioness Gets Out of Cage.

Dallas, Oct. 30.—"Juliet," a lioness connected with an animal show on the fair grounds, managed to get out of her cage. She got on the Pike and everyone was seized with a sudden desire to vacate that portion of the grounds. Three blank cartridges were fired at the animal, a noose slipped about her neck and she placed back in her cage.

COMMUNICATION FROM E. J. JENKINS.

Offer to Refund Money if Hyomei does Not Cure Catarrh.

To the Editor of the Eagle:

I have been asked recently if the advertisements printed in your columns regarding Hyomei were true, where I offer to refund the money if this treatment does not cure catarrh. I wish you would please print this letter in as conspicuous a place as possible in your paper, saying that we absolutely agree to refund the money to any purchaser of a Hyomei outfit if it does not cure catarrh.

This outfit consists of an inhaler of a convenient size to be carried in the vest pocket so that the user can breathe Hyomei four or five times daily. With this is included a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The outfit sells for $1.00 and is a most economical treatment, for the inhaler lasts a lifetime and there is enough Hyomei for several weeks' use, while extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents.

I trust this letter will settle any doubts that may have arisen as to my willingness to refund the money for a Hyomei outfit, in case the purchaser is not perfectly satisfied.

I wish to say emphatically that my guarantee on Hyomei holds good, and I will refund the money to any dissatisfied purchaser who simply states that he has used the treatment according to directions and not been helped.

Respectfully yours, E. J. Jenkins.

KALEIDOSCOPIC CANDIDATE.

Robert John has again announced his candidacy for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals. His first announcement was more than a year ago, at the Houston convention. Subsequently, and while he was still a candidate against Judge

Henderson, the present incumbent, he sought an appointment as reporter for this court, but for some reason he failed to get the place. The next we hear of this peripatetic office-hunter, he is out of the race for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, in order to become the campaign manager of one of the aspirants for governor. Still subsequent to this, he entered the race for district judge against Judge Pope of the Beaumont district. More recently, he again announces for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and this, although he had promised his friend, Bob Seay, that he would not run against him. Now, all this happened within a year, and if it don't demonstrate that Mr. John is a persistent, kaleidoscopic candidate for any office that comes along, then we fail to understand the meaning of his conduct.

We would like further to inquire, why he made a breach of faith with Col. Seay? Did he believe after inducing the colonel to become a candidate, that the chances for his own nomination became more favorable; or is he running in the interest and at the behest of a certain candidate who is aspiring to the governor's office? —Winnsboro Free Press.

ACETYLENE GAS LIGHTS.

Coming into Favor for Town Lighting and Fuel for Stoves.

A great many towns in the South and west that installed electric lights years ago have tired of them because the plants have in some cases run down, and give poor service, and in many of these towns and in others that have never had lights, acetylene town lighting plants are now being installed. Whitewright Texas, Bowie Texas, and several towns in the Indian Territory are among the number.

Acetylene town lights have had their greatest run however, in Nebraska and adjoining States. The following item is from "The Graphic" published at Atkinson Nebraska:

About six months has now elapsed since Atkinson became blessed with an Acetylene illuminating and heating plant, and in view of its wonderful success in operation, the "Graphic" considers a brief resume of the same appropriate at this time.

The Atkinson Heat and Light Company was organized and incorporated last December, with a capital of $5,000.00, the stockholders all being local business men. A suitable building was erected, and a 1,000-light "Monarch" plant installed. Two miles of pipe was laid then, which has been greatly increased since. Pipe from one and one fourth to two and one half inches is used for mains, and service boxes are placed at each lot, from which the buildings are piped with three-eighths-inch pipe. The burners used are "quarter foot to three quarter foot"—that is, of a size that will consume that much gas per hour. The gas is sold by meter at one and one half cents per foot. Thus the expense of running a half foot burner which has a brilliancy of twenty-five candle power, and will fill a large room full of bright white light, is three-fourths of a cent per hour.

To say that such lights at such a price are giving unbounded satisfaction to the people of Atkinson is to put it mildly. People who were at first pessimistic about it do not now think of putting up a new building without piping it for gas at the same time. The gas is fully as practical for heating purposes as for illumination, the same gas making a white flame with very little heat for lighting, or a blue flame, much hotter than any other gas or gasoline flame for cooking. The difference is caused by a simple adjustment of the stoves used, which mixes more air with the gas, causing a blue flame. The local company here reports that while their receipts from lights are necessarily lighter at this time of the year, on account of the short evenings, it is more than recompensed by the increased consumption for cooking purposes. Housewives who use it, find it much more satisfactory than gasoline, being clean, safe and always ready for use.

"Monarch" plants have been installed at Bell, Elgin, Oakdale, Tilden, Bancroft, Elmwood, Newmans, Grove, Dunbar, Bassett, and Newport, we also understand negotiations are pending with the business men of Ainsworth. The "Graphic" ventures the assertion that within a year or two nearly every town on this line of road will have a plant of this kind.

Before buying this plant the local company sent three of their number to investigate the plants in the above mentioned towns, and found them giving the best of satisfaction, and all citizens loud in their praises.

At present Atkinson uses but four arc lights, the village trustees fearing they would be too expensive to put in more, but after six months' use, the cheapness of them has been demonstrated to such an extent that more will doubtless be erected soon.

From W. E. Scott, village clerk, we learn that during the month of April, the four lights cost $8.40, in May, $7.65, and in June, $7.35.

Thus it will be seen that the cost is less than one-fourth that of electricity, while the quality of the light is much better. A newspaper can be read a block away from the light.

A THRILLING SPECTACLE.

The Opening of the Panama Canal to All Nations with Forepaugh-Sells Circus.

The progressive policy of the Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United is again illustrated this season in their magnificent spectacle, Panama, or the Portals of the Sea. The production involves 1,000 characters, and requires the use of a stage larger than the combined stage space in 100 theatres. Thousands of costumes, the design and make of Parisian artists, are employed, and the scenes of marching hosts, festive galaxies, galloping soldiers, royal groupings and swiftly changing dramatic incidents form a spectacular play indescribably fascinating. The music composed for this gorgeous production is rendered by a band of fifty selected soloists. The scenic investiture is elaborate and ornate, and the spectacle in its entirety is incomparably the most important and successful historical display ever shown under canvas. The same policy of enlargement and novelty is to be seen in the ring performances this season. Three hundred of the pick and flower of Europe, America and the Orient in the circus profession are to be found in the huge arenic program. Many of the leading artists in the riding, acrobatic and gymnastic numbers have never been seen in this country before, and are celebrated in their foreign homes. This year it takes four enormous special trains to transport the immense equipment, horses and personal factors. When the circus is completely set upon the show grounds there are twenty pavilions in all. The street pageant on the morning of show day is the biggest and most varied ever organized. This attraction with Forepaugh and Sells has always been immeasurably superior to the efforts of all other shows, and this season it is more diversified, resplendent, novel, sensational and longer than ever before. The great shows will be here one day only, Saturday, November 11, and give two performances, at 2 o'clock and 8 o'clock. Numbered reserved seats and admission tickets can be bought circus day at The Postoffice Drugstore for exactly the same price charged in the ticket wagons on the show grounds.

Troops Under Captain McCoy Kill Him, Son and Ten Others.

Manila, Oct. 28.—Troops under Captain Frank R. McCoy of the Third cavalry, aide de camp to Major General Wood, surprised Datto Ali, head of the Moro insurgents on the island of Mindanao, who had been on the war path for some time past, and killed him, together with his son and ten followers. Forty-three wounded Moros were taken prisoners and many arms and a large quantity of ammunition captured.

Three enlisted men of the Twenty-second infantry were killed and two wounded during the engagement.

Heavy fighting is also reported between constabulary and Moro insurgents near Lake Linguasen, Mindanao.

Datto Ali, who for a long time past had given considerable trouble to the American authorities in Mindanao, took the aggressive Oct. 16 last and since then he has been killing many Moros friendly to the American government. He recently informed chiefs assisting Federal troops to capture him that he was prepared to meet and kill them.

ONE MINUTE

One Minute Cough Cure gives relief in one minute, because it kills the microbe which tickles the mucous membrane, causing the cough, and at the same time clears the phlegm, draws out the inflammation and heals and soothes the affected parts. One Minute Cough Cure strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia and is a harmless and never failing cure in all curable cases of Coughs, Colds and Croup.

Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure and gave her three doses half an hour apart. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered. I cannot praise One Minute Cough Cure too much for what it has done in our family.—A. L. Spafford, Postmaster, Chester, Mich.

Rev. Augustin Gagnon, chaplain of the Ursuline Academy, left Sunday to visit Austin, San Antonio and Houston. Father Gagnon contemplates leaving Bryan at an early date, having had several calls for his services in California and northwestern states. He came to Bryan two years ago from Canada to recuperate and rest after sixteen years of continuous and arduous labor in Canada, province of Quebec, which had materially impaired his health. He says his health and strength is now restored, and he feels that duty calls him to more arduous labors than he has here. Father Gagnon requests the Eagle to express his thanks to the people of Bryan for the kindness and courtesy shown him during his residence here, and says that he will ever hold the Ursuline community and the people of Bryan in grateful remembrance. Father Gleissner, after the final departure of Father Gagnon, will direct the religious observances of the Ursuline community until a new chaplain is placed in charge.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Those Who Fell In Naval Battles Fit-tingly Remembered.

Tokio, Oct. 30.—Impressive religious memorial services for those who were killed in the naval battles during the war between Russia and Japan are being held daily by friends and relatives of the deceased.

It is reported negotiations between British capitalists and the Kogyo bank in this city have been successfully concluded, making the latter the standing medium for foreign investments in Japan.

The great Shinto rites in memory of the naval officers and men who were killed during the war were held Sunday at Adyana cemetery. Besides the admirals, officers and sailors, hundreds of civil dignitaries were present. Admiral Togo addressed the departed spirits, eulogizing their noble deeds in battle and their gallant co-operation which resulted in the sacrifice of their lives. He humbly asked repose for the spirits whose exemplary deeds in life had contributed to the victory of a powerful enemy. While making his address Admiral Togo was seen to be seized with strong emotion, which was in contrast with his calm demeanor while on the bridge of the Mikasa during the hottest battles. The ceremony was most impressive and calculated to leave a lasting impression on those who witnessed it. Thousands of sailors marched to the accompanying strains of music to the cemetery and afterward to the Naval club.

Morris Nathan, secretary of the manager of the "Shepherd King," believes the suit case victim was undoubtedly his sweetheart, Susan Geary.
